LETTER.

Dear Mom:

When opening photos from years ago and comparing them with the current one and I remember the my grandmother's phrase "Time has flown by" came to mind and I understood what she meant by looking at the photos, in them I see you with those features that the time has left in you, your face expressed so many things; I was happy that you were so proud of me because all these achievements, we have achieved together.

Memories come to mind when we sat at that table every afternoon and you helped me do my homework, memories of all those times that you had patience with me teaching me and tried your best to understand it, but the part that marked me the most was that you believed in me, you did not give up on me, currently what I am, I owe everything to you, my favorite person. I wish you could see with my eyes how I see you, for me you were always someone that I have admired for years, someone who led me to achieve everything I set out to do; Sometimes when I got in trouble, you taught me how to get out of it. You made me and my sister strong and united people, you showed us that in this life alone we cannot without needing the help of others and also understand that success is not won without effort or dedication; I thank you for becoming that way, because now we are able to face the world we call "life."

They say that life is full of obstacles that sometimes we cannot overcome, and in part it is true, because during all those difficult moments, you have taught me that my weaknesses can become strengths and thanks to all those teachings they have become good experiences that always I will carry them with me to remember them and have them always in my heart.

Everything that has been good was thanks to you, you were the one who always supported me in moments where I could no longer give more; When I did not believe that I would be able to enter Tec, you were the one who put your faith in me the most, you reminded me of what I would be capable of if I tried hard and when I did it the first person I thought of was you, because although I I was insecure of myself, you knew that I would achieve it and for that I thank you, I know that educating me has been difficult and arduous for you, but I want you to know that all my achievements will always be directed to you, the best mother, who would never change by someone else.

I love you mom, never forget it

CARTA

Querida mamá:

Al abrir fotos de años atrás y comparándolas con las actuales, me vino a la mente la frase de mi abuela “El tiempo ha pasado volando” y comprendí a lo que se refería al observar las fotos, en ellas te veo con aquellos rasgos que el tiempo ha dejado en ti, tu rostro expresaba tantas cosas; estaba feliz de que te sintieras tan orgullosa de mí porque todos esos logros, los hemos alcanzado juntas.

Recuerdos vienen a mi mente cuando nos sentábamos cada tarde en aquella mesa y me ayudabas a hacer la tarea, recuerdos de todas esas veces que me tuviste paciencia al enseñarme y te esforzaste al máximo para que lo comprendiera, pero la parte que más me marcó fue que creíste en mí, no te rendiste conmigo, actualmente lo que soy, te lo debo todo a ti, mi persona favorita. Quisiera que pudieras ver con mis ojos como yo te veo, para mí siempre fuiste alguien que por años he admirado, alguien que me llevó a lograr todo lo que me propusiera; a veces cuando me metía en problemas, me enseñabas a salir ellos. Hiciste de mí y de mi hermana personas fuertes y unidas, nos mostraste que en esta vida solas no podemos sin necesitar la ayuda de los demás y también comprender que el triunfo no se gana sin esfuerzo ni dedicación; te doy las gracias por volvernos de esa manera, porque ahora somos capaces de enfrentarnos al mundo que llamamos “vida”.

Dicen que la vida está llena de obstáculos que a veces no podemos superar, y en parte es cierto, porque durante todos esos momentos difíciles, me has enseñado que mis debilidades puedo volverlas fortalezas y gracias a todas esas enseñanzas se han vuelto buenas experiencias que siempre llevaré conmigo para recordarlas y tenerlas siempre en mi corazón.

Todo lo que ha sido bueno fue gracias a ti, tu eras quien me sostenía siempre en momentos donde ya no podía dar más; cuando yo no creía que podría ser capaz de entrar al Tec tu fuiste quien más puso su fe en mí, me recordaste de lo que yo sería capaz si me esforzaba y cuando lo logré la primera persona en quien pensé fue en ti, porque aunque yo fui insegura de mi misma, tú sabías que lo lograría y por eso te doy gracias, se que educarme ha sido difícil y arduo para ti, pero quiero que sepas que todos mis logros siempre estarán dirigidos a ti, la mejor madre, que jamás cambiaría por alguien más.

Te amo Mamá, nunca lo olvides

REFLECTION:

My experience in this challenge was so grateful because I discovered how she felt about me, before I couldn't tell her the things that I actually think and for her it was so exciting and kind. I think the best form to express everything I felt was for this letter. We found memories that enjoyed it much; stories that were so funny; since this lockdown we couldn't talk much about her and me and this was the opportunity to be grateful and didn't regret. When she read this letter hugged me and started to cry, we have a moment that I wouldn't change for anything.
